THE ALLDS BRIBERY CHARGES

INQUIRY WAITING ON THE PLAN OF PROCEDURE.

previousion Rife as to How Much of the louer Life of Albany Will Be Shown - Conger, Who Made the Charges, says He Has Nothing to Betract.

ALBANY, Jan. 21 .- The Senate's hearing the charges of bribery made against tenator Jotham P. Allds, Republican nder in the upper house, by Senator onger now waits on the determinaof the plan of procedure. The comitien is composed of Senators Edgar Frackett of Saratoga and George Meade of Monroe, Republicans, and ator Thomas F. Grady, the minority sicader. This committee met yesterday tentative plan will be submitted and adopted for presentation to the Senate

Tuesday morning.
The liveliest kind of speculation is rife as to just how much of the inner life of will be shown as the inquiry progresses. It is a question whether or no the plan of procedure will limit the in quiry to the specific case or leave it broad mough to bring in other matters. The procedure is hard to decide upon for the reason that in the history of the State so far as the records show there is no case precisely like this one.

The procedure in any case will provide for counsel to the Senate and the two Senators. Senator Allds has consulted with Lewis E. Carr of Albany, a well known railroad attorney; Danforth E. Ainsworth, formerly a deputy Attorney-General who with ex-Justice Hatch was counsel for Otto a deputy Attorney-General who with Kelsey in the removal proceedings, and Lewis T. Griffith of Troy. It is understood that he has yet done nothing final regarding the engagement of counsel. The name of Henry W. Taft of New York, brother of the President, has been mentioned as counsel to the Senate.

The fact that the Senate will hold the hearing as a committee of the whole means that practically no other business will be done by the Senate as long as the Allds case lasts. The Assembly will be forced to mark time, for while bills may be introduced and some hearings be held the lower house will be unable to send forward much work without the cooperation of the Senate

ITHACA, Jan. 21.—Senator Benn Congerto-day said that he proposed to stand by his guns as to the charges he has made against Senator Jotham P. Allds of Chenango. He had nothing to retract and did not propose to shirk. The Senator was busy outlining his case and getting evidence together.

"All I ask is that the people of Ithaca."

was busy outlining his case and getting evidence together.

"All I ask is that the people of Ithaca and Tompkins county withhold judgment pending the result of the Senate inquiry. The case is being tried in the New York newspapers apparently. I wish you would put my request to the home people to do me the justice to await the outcome. The hearings will be public and the whole matter will be threshed out."

Senator Conger said he did not think it wise to state in advance the nature of his charges against Senator Allds. All he had to say on this point was that he had nothing to retract.

"I do not wish to say what the charges

"I do not wish to say what the charges are, neither do I wish to shirk them. An effort seems to be going on to create a sentiment in favor of Senator Allds, and for that reason I am particularly anxious that the people here at home should suspend judgment till the case is laid before the Senate."

Senator Conger said that he and Senator Allds had merely been excused from at-toding the sessions of the Senate pending the inquiry.

"Not much significance attaches to that," said the Senator. "We have simply been excused and we are at liberty to attend the sessions when we wish."

THREE SENATORS ON HAND. Bill to Fix the Pay of Condemnation

ALBANY, Jan. 21 .- Ashokan dam condemnation commissioners hereafter will get only $15 a day if a bill introduced by Senator George B. Agnew (Rep., Manhattan) passes. It is provided that a day must include six hours work and that the total of costs, fees and expenses of each proceeding shall not exceed 10 per cent. of the award. is provid Majority Leader Merritt introduced a bill appropriating $636,000 for the proposed New York State training school for boys at Yorktown Heights. The commission appointed to secure a site has authority to acquire lands by condemnation and to enter into certain contracts involving a total expenditure of $1.250,000.

It shall be illegal to sell bass taken in any waters of the State if a bill introduced by Assemblyman Sweet (Rep., Oswego) becomes a law. Mr. Sweet also has a bill to make an open season for marten and sable, the same as for mink and skunk, from November 1 to March 15 March 15.

GOV. HUGHES BACK IN ALBANY. Nothing More to Say About His Retire ment After the Close of His Term. ALBANY. Jan. 21.-Gov. Hughes returned from his Washington trip early this afternoon and went directly to the Capitol. The Governor was in excellent spirits and gave cheery greetings to questioners, but said he had nothing to add to what had been said concerning plans in Washington despatches setting forth his intention to return to the practice of the law after the close of his present term. The Governor said he had been fully quoted. The Governor declined to comment on the Allds-Conger situation

Officers were elected as follows: President, A. J. Rockwood of Rochester: vice-president, Thomas C. Brown of Schenectady; secretary, Charles H. Flanagan of Albany; treasurer, Joseph Walker of New Paltz.

The contractors will meet the members of the State Highway Commission and assure them that they are not banded together to eliminate competition.

ERIE FIRE IN JERSEY ! CITY. Burning Oil in Tank Car on Trestle a Peculiar Menace. The Eric Railroad Company suffered a loss of $25,000 early yesterday morning when an office building, an ice house and a carload of oil in the terminal freight Yards several hundred feet north of the passenger station in Jersey City went up in smoke, and the company's gas plant was damaged by flames.

m smoke, and the company's gas plant was damaged by flames.

The fire started in the gas plant and chickly spread to the other buildings because hydrants were scarce, and the lersey City firemen were compelled to tretch their lines of hose many hundred feet to reach the flames. Tugboats did effective work. The oil tank oar stood on a trestle,' and the firemen played structure to prevent it from burning.
